Family History

Generation One

Jakob I OHLHAUSEN was born on 4 Jun 1858 in Jakobsonstal, Braila, Romania and was baptized on June 9th. He was confirmed on 18 May 1873 in Bortscheag, Bessarabia. During the period between 1880 and 1892 he resided in Unter-Albota, from 1892 until 1940 he lived in Sofiewka, Bessarabia. Jakob I Ohlhausen was a farmer and a Mayor of Sofiewka, however his biggest challenge was as a member of parliament in Bucharest from 1919-22 after he was elected from the district of Ismail as a member of the Bessarabian farmers party. During this time period Romania introduced the much-hated expropriation laws where no farm was allowed to be larger than 100 hectares. The land taken by the government was then given to the poor. At the time Jakob had accumulated quite a bit of land which fell under this new law. He was a religious man and a group to study the Bible met regularly at his house.

He first married Rosina Nast 7 Nov 1880 Alt-Elft, Bessarabia. Jakob then married Katharina Eberhardt on 3 Jan 1883 in Alt-Elft, Bessarabia, and to this union 5 children were born. He then married Christine (Quast) Ruge, daughter of Johann Quast and Christine Schneider, on 29 Jun 1904 in Alt-Elft, Bessarabia, and to this union 4 children were born. Also Christine brought the following children into the marriage: Christine Ruge (who m. Johannes Lust); Immanuel Ruge (who m. Herta Unterseher); Maria Ruge (who m. Otto Unterseher).

In 1919 he married Karoline (Brisske) Mittelstaedt in Tarutinao, Bessarabia, and no children were born to this union, however 3 girls and 5 boys came into this marriage, Meta, Helene, Elsa, Gustav, Friedrich, Reinhard, Wilhelm, Immanuel. (Note: the boys did not actually move into the family with the mother but the girls did.).

At the age of 77 Jakob married Katharina (Siewert) Heidinger on 31 Oct 1935 in Alt-Elft, Bessarabia. He died on 19 Apr 1948 in Dettingen unter der Teck, Wuerttemberg, Germany at age 89.
